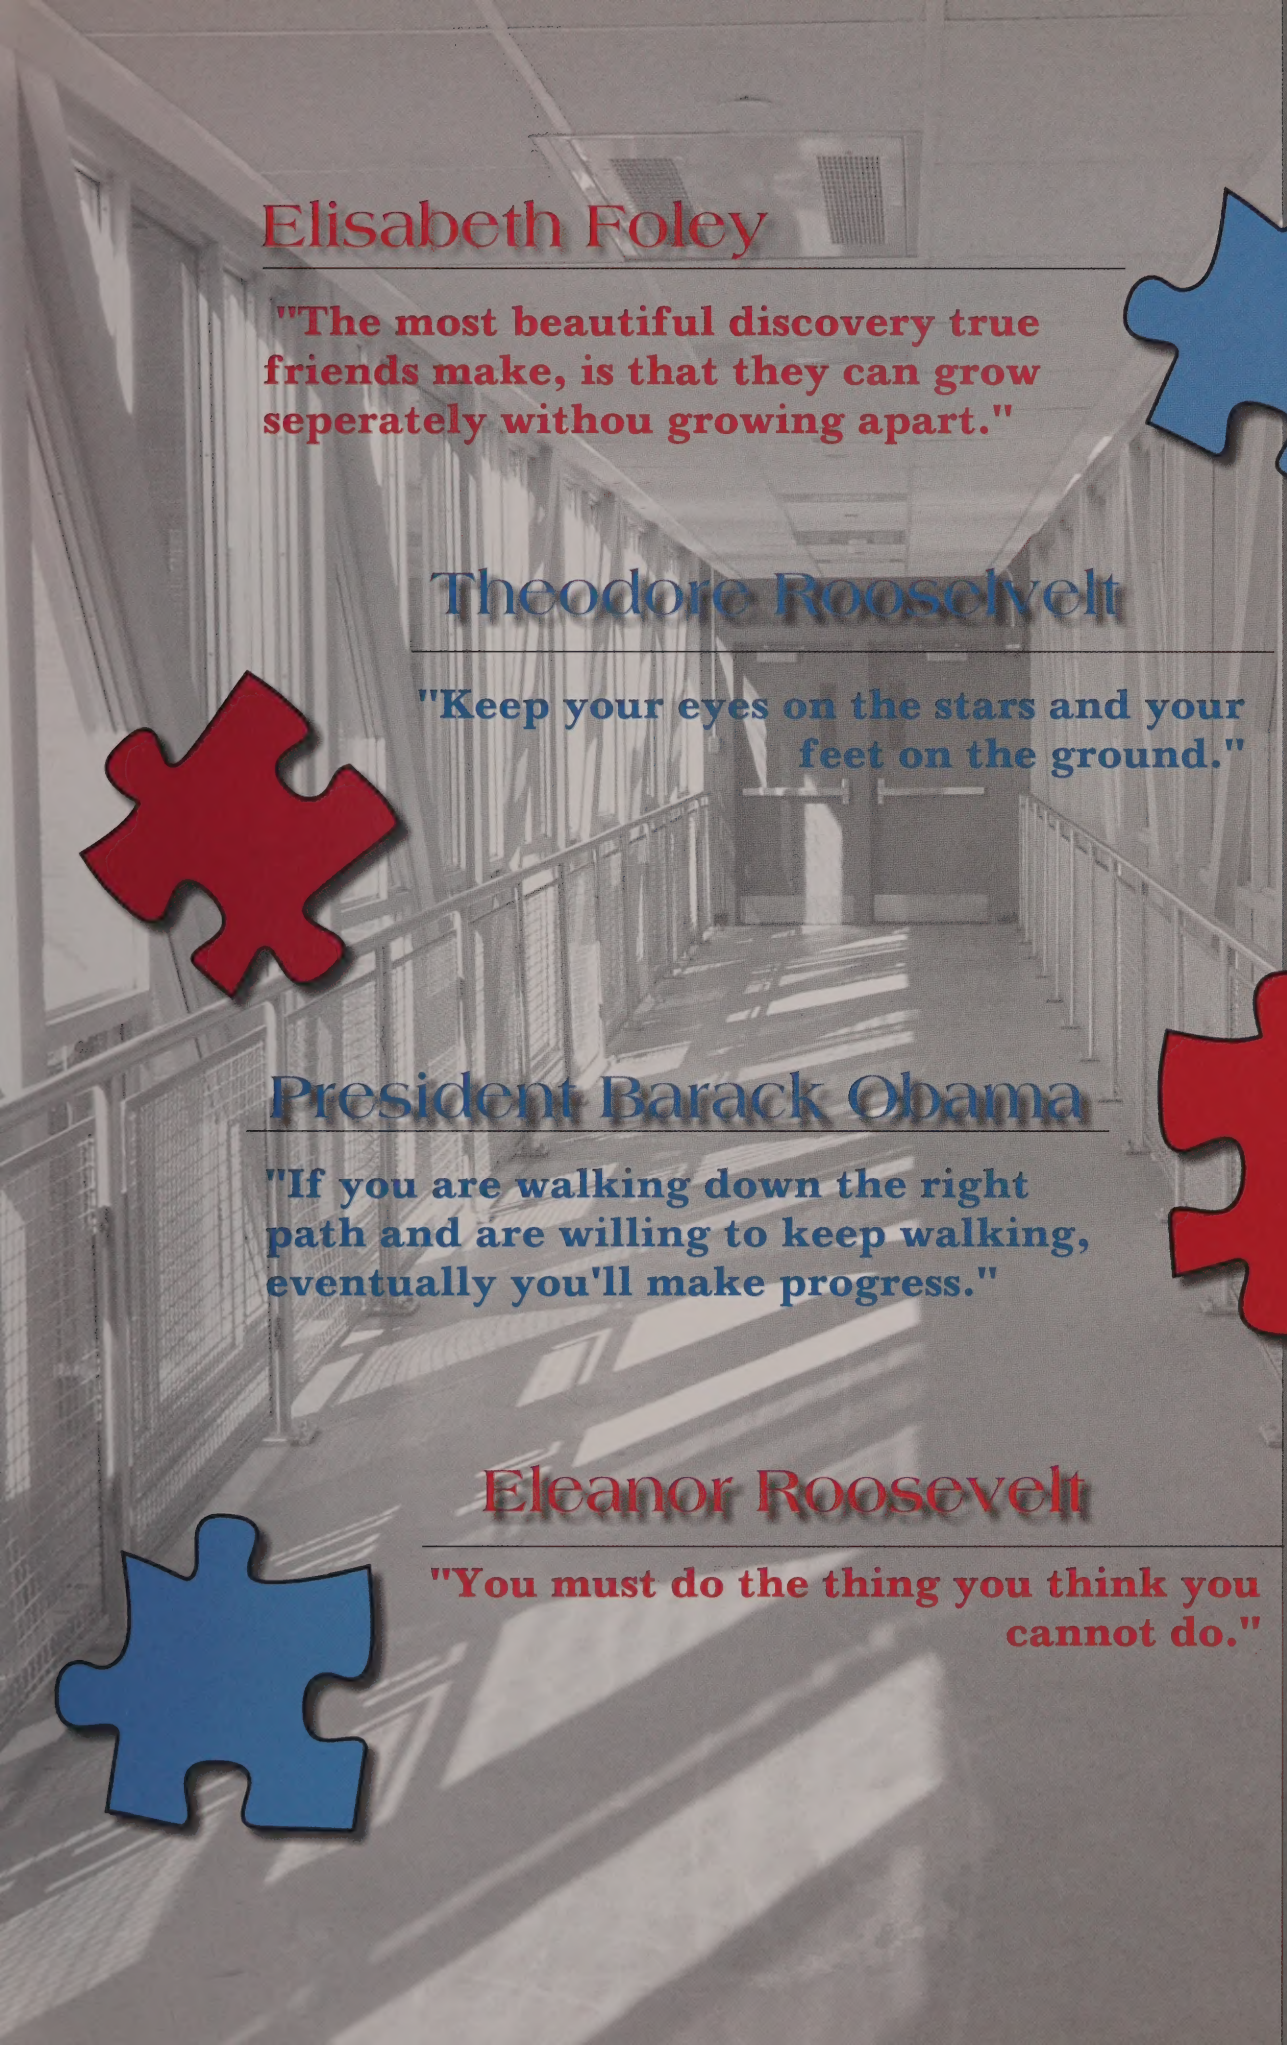
what's your storyline?



Elisabeth Foley

"The most beautiful discovery true friends make, is that they can grow seperately withou growing apart."

Theodore Roosevelt

"Keep your eyes on the stars and your feet on the ground."

President Barack Obama

"If you are walking down the right path and are willing to keep walking, eventually you'll make progress."

Eleanor Roosevelt

"You must do the thing you think you cannot do."

CUPIDS WINTER BALL.....

Everyone glittered that Friday Evening at the Cupids Winter Ball/Homecoming Dance. Two hundred Charlestown students grooved to the rhythm in a Valentines inspired atmosphere. It was a shining finale to a great homecoming week.

Medhanit Tadesse and Bryant Huff stole the show, by taking home the coveted crowns. The rest of the court glimmered under cameras and cheers.

As a last Homecoming for seniors, it was a night that will forever be with them; and as for the underclassmen, it was one that they will hope to relive in years to come.

Lookin Good.....

This was the first event of the year where everyone was able to get dressed to the 9's!

CHAMPIONS!!!

For The Record

The Charlestown Cheerleaders were able to bring back something the school has been missing for some time now....

A CHAMPIONSHIP

Rocking the Townie red, white and blue, giant polka dot bows and perfect smiles, this years cheer squad came, saw and conquered the competition with tricks, flips, jumps, sick dance moves and one of a kind stunts. They have set the standard high for the future. Good Luck Seniors!

For The Record

This years team was a mixture of experience and inexperience. But the boys team still managed to finish 4th in the Boston City League North division with a record of 2-3 and land 6th overall in the city championship lead by team co-captains Malcolm Brown and Renci Franic. Next years team will be young but talented and experienced led by freshman Brandon Scott who will be a sophomore next year.
